Culturally safe and accessible support for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people.

The Orange Door provides access to holistic child, family and family violence services to improve the safety and wellbeing of all Aboriginal people and communities.

Contact The Orange Door if:

- Someone close to you is hurting you, controlling you or making you feel afraid, such as your partner, family member, housemate or carer
- You are struggling with parenting due to money issues, family conflict, illness, addiction, grief or isolation
- You are concerned about the wellbeing of a child or young person
- You are concerned about the safety of a friend or family member

This is a free service

The Orange Door recognises that family violence is not and has never been a part of Aboriginal culture.

The Orange Door has an Aboriginal Practice Leader and works with local Aboriginal services and communities to meet the needs of families and support self-determination.

Orange Door staff will give you options for support for you and your family.
